

PSY 600/IDE 880

Teaching Introductory Psychology

Instructors: Professor Larry Lewandowski (LL)

Location: 530 Huntington Hall

Dates: July 11 – July 15, 2021
July 28 – August 26

Times: 9 - 4:00
Independent work

Materials: Psychology: Themes and Variations by Wayne Weiten, (9-11th editions)
Blackboard materials
Activity Handbook
MindTap online at Cengage.com website

Schedule:

July 11

Monday

9-10 Orientation

LL 10-12 Intros, syllabus for the week,
course overview & structure,

12-1 Lunch

LL 1-4 Course outline
Research projects, papers, options
Review Blackboard materials

You Review research studies & sample research papers
Review Chapters

July 12

Tuesday

LL 9-12 Theory & Research
Blackboard supplementals

You 12-1 Lunch

LL 1-2 Biological
Cengage materials & exam bank

Emily 2-3 Administrative

LL 3-4 Perception

Us 4-6 BBQ

You Review Chapters; Draft syllabus;

July 13

Wednesday

LL 9-12 Learning & Memory
Blackboard: Activities

You 12-1 Lunch

LL 1-4 Development & Personality

You Review Chapters; Syllabus;

July 14

Thursday

LL 9-11 Social Psych
Sean 11 Administrative

You 12-2 Lunch w Sean

LL 2-4 Disorders & Treatment

You Complete Syllabus and email it to LL
Prepare Teaching demo

July 15

Friday

You 9-12 Syllabus reviews; Teaching demos, Wrap Up

Assignments for Training Week:

- Review the textbook
- Review course policies and procedures;
- Complete a syllabus of the course;
- Develop a timetable for your course around your school schedule;
- Develop a class presentation for a topic in Psychology and present on Friday;

Assignment for Graduate Credit:

- Within 6 weeks (by August 26), provide a comprehensive curriculum plan on the topics you will teach, including scope and sequence, methods employed, means of assessment, plan to integrate research activities, etc. Revise according to faculty feedback (see examples from Dr. Lewandowski).

Assignment as needed:

- Maintain contact with Dr. Lewandowski as you develop your course and revise your syllabus. It is a good time to ask questions as you develop the course, so do not be hesitant.

Thanks for choosing to be a SUPA Psych Instructor and good luck on this new journey. We are here to support you.